Aaron,

Yesterday, August 29, 2022, around 8:00AM Verti entered my office asking if I knew where (b) (6) or (b) (6) were as they weren't in their office. I told him (b) (6) was in (b) (6) office talking with (b) (6). Verti entered the doorway of (b) (6) office and began speaking to (b) (6) and (b) (6) on the files for (b) (6) EPUB Numbering System migration. He proceed to explain/describe what he ran into with the files. Both (b) (6) and (b) (6) had questions for Verti to better understand what he was trying to explain. The conversation only last a couple minutes before he sat down visibly upset in my office out of view of both (b) (6) and (b) (6) and sat there not talking. (b) (6) began speaking to (b) (6) about trying to understand what was just discussed and at that point Verti lunged over my desk at me and stated angrily why doesn't (b) (6) understand what I'm saying. I held my hand up and told him to stop and please give me space before he started to say I'm not sure what I'm suppose to do and I was hoping to talk to you about handing things over to have someone else to work on this. He wanted to proceed with speaking out against (b) (6) and (b) (6) when I told him to stop and leave. He threw his arms up in the air and left my office stating he didn't know what to do a couple times. Verti sent me a couple long messages in a Teams chat which I have attached to this email. I acknowledge the third message with a thumbs up reaction to let him know I received the message.

This is my account of the situation that occurred yesterday in my office. This is all written to the best of my knowledge.

Let me know if you need anything else.

Thanks,
